Dear Mr. Miller:

The Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries appreciates your letter of July 6, 1990 to our Chapter Treasurer regarding your support for equal opportunity and affirmative action. The Southeastern Chapter also believes strongly in these principles and strives to maintain an association environment free of discrimination and harassment.

Thank you again for your letter.

Sincerely,

Timothy L. Coggins, President

Dear Subcontractors, Vendors and Suppliers:

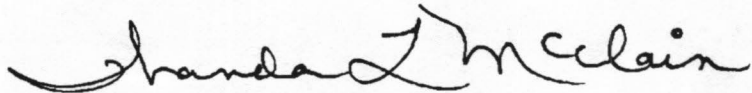

Annually we communicate and reaffirm that The Coca-Cola Company and Coca-Cola USA fully supports equal opportunity and affirmative action and adheres to its obligations under Executive Order 11246, as amended, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, 38 U.S.C. 2012 (Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act), and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act. We strive to create a working environment free of discrimination and harassment with respect to race, sex, color, national origin, religion, age, handicap, or being a special disabled veteran or a veteran of the Vietnam Era, as well as to make reasonable accommodations in the employment of qualified individuals with disabilities.

The Coca-Cola Company and Coca-Cola USA have no reason to believe that your company is not in full compliance with equal opportunity and affirmative action legislation. However, we wish to remind you of your obligation as a subcontractor, vendor or supplier of The Coca-Cola Company and Coca-Cola USA to operate in compliance with all applicable legislative and regulatory obligations and consistent with our spirit of equal opportunity and affirmative action.

Sincerely,

Jerome Miller
Equal Opportunity Manager
